The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. F. E. Hausser, assisted by August Lange, a student of the seminary, who has charge of the German Presbyterian Church in Carlstadt.

Apropos of bonding, one citizen suggests that bonds be issued for the erection of a Town Hall at the Centre, the the ground floor to be used for the Truck Company and No. 1 Hose Company; the second floor for township offices, and the third floor as a hall for entertainments and public meetings. The construction of a lockup is also recommended.

St. John's Episcopal Church at Cohoes, N. Y., was filled with people last Wednesday evening to witness the marriage ceremony of Joseph H. Simcox to Miss Della Slater, well-known residents of Cohoes. The bridesmaids were Miss May Harvey of Bloomfield, Sadie Slater, Julia Simcox, and Carrie Knot of Cohoes. The maid of honor was Miss Sadie Harvey of this place.

Political Notes.

The importance of the next Township Committee in the matter of issuing bonds this year has led the voters of the Second Ward to look about for a good business man to represent them in the Township Committee. They have decided to nominate Mr. Thomas Oakes. It is said that he will accept the nomination.

A number of well-known Republicans have requested J. M. Walker of the Second Ward to become a candidate for Overseer of Poor. They say that they are dissatisfied with the management of the poor farm at Brookdale. William Stimis of Brookdale has also been mentioned.

A Washington's Birthday Sociable.

A very pleasant sociable was held in the parlors of the First Presbyterian Church last Monday evening. The room was prettily decorated with red, white and blue bunting and the stars and stripes. About thirty of the young people, arrayed in Continental costumes, reminded one of the time of George and Martha Washington; while "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," "The Star Spangled Banner," "America," and other songs, a national air to the evening. A solo was admirably rendered by one of the ladies. Refreshments were served by waiters adorned with red, white and blue ribbons; and the general opinion seemed to be that the dress of a century ago was more becoming than that of to-day.

Declared a Draw.

There was a race between the bay pacer Gold Digger, belonging to Jacob Metz, and Dennis Conroy's chestnut horse Blue Rock, for a purse of $25, on South Orange Avenue, over a course covering three-quarters of a mile. Conroy claimed the stakes, but the referee declared the race a draw.

A Road Superintendent Needed.

The numerous complaints about the poor quality of stone roads constructed in this town would seem to justify the employment of some capable man to look after the work in the interest of the town. Contractors use too much dirt packing in making the roads. Members of the Township Committee cannot be expected to spend their time watching contractors. A trustworthy and competent overseer who could be relied on to compel contractors to do work properly would more than compensate the town for his salary.

All Paid For.

In respect to sidewalks, gas-lamps, water hydrants and fire departments, this town is not behind any other town in the State in proportion to population and wealth. The gratifying feature of it is that what improvements we have are all paid for.

Professor A. P. Devlin, the phrenologist, can be consulted at the American House all next week, or you can have him call upon you at your home by appointment or by sending a postal card.—Advt.
